On May 2, 2016, the Town Center Joint Commission presented its recommendations to the City Council related to the Town Center Vision, Comprehensive Plan polices and amendments to the Town Center Development and Design Guidelines. As part of the continuing community engagement surrounding Town Center issues, the City Council scheduled a public hearing to receive citizen input on the Town Center proposals. Please refer to Agenda Bills 5174 and 5175 from the May 2 meeting, which includes the proposed Town Center Vision, Comprehensive Plan polices and amendments to the Town Center Development and Design Guidelines. This information is also available on the City's website at www.mercergov.org/councilmeetings.

No action is required on May 9. The next Council meeting for discussion of the Town Center proposals is May 16.
